Welcome

- How to Prepare
 - For
- Loan Originator Licensing
 - K.C. Schaler,
 - Supervising Examiner
 - State of Idaho, Department of Finance

What We Will Cover:

- Definitions and Exemptions
 - who is covered and who is not
- Application Process
 - Initial filing, renewals
- Continuing Education and Proposed Rules
- Important Dates and more...

DEFINITIONS

■ Loan Originator

- Subject to licensing and continuing education
- “Loan Originator” means any person, other than an exempt person, who performs the activities described...with respect to a residential mortgage loan.

■ Qualified Person in Charge (QPIC)

- Subject to continuing education
- Subject to licensing if conducting loan origination activity
- The individual designated in charge of the mortgage broker/lender licensee, whose 3 years of residential mortgage broker/lender experience was used to secure or maintain a mortgage broker/lender license.

■ Loan Origination Activities

- “Loan Origination Activities” means for compensation or gain, either directly or indirectly, engaging in any of the following activities while representing or acting on behalf of a mortgage broker or mortgage lender:
 - ❑ Soliciting, accepting, or offering to accept an application for a residential mortgage loan;
 - ❑ Assisting a borrower, or offering to assist a borrower in the preparation of a residential mortgage loan application; or
 - ❑ Negotiating or offering to negotiate the terms or conditions of a residential mortgage loan with a borrower.

Exemptions

- Employees and agents of certain financial institutions —banks, credit unions, savings & loan associations and industrial loan companies----and their wholly-owned subsidiaries.
- Employees and agents of bank affiliate licensees if the affiliate is wholly-owned by the same bank holding system.

License Application Process

- Sole Proprietors who hold a mortgage broker/lender license in their own name will not be required to obtain an additional loan originator license as long as they remain exclusive to themselves and do not originate for any other entity.
- W-2 employees and 1099 contract personnel are equal and the same when it pertains to licensing under the IRMPA.
- Licensing requirements do not apply to those who perform only clerical or administrative functions and who do not solicit borrowers or negotiate the terms of loans on behalf of the licensee, or perform other described loan origination activities.

Loan Application Process

■ Pre-Licensing Requirements

- No Test!
- License application fee of $200. If a complete application package is filed (postmarked by the USPS or documented by an overnight delivery service) by March 1, 2006, the initial fee is $100. Fees are non-refundable.
- Completed application form
- Surety bond, to the state of Idaho, or a Certificate of Deposit in the amount of $10K.

Loan Application Process

- Loan originator license applications may be denied if:
 - ❑ The financial responsibility, character and fitness cannot be demonstrated;
 - ❑ The applicant has been convicted of any felony;
 - ❑ A court has accepted a finding of guilt of any felony;
 - ❑ The applicant has been convicted of a misdemeanor involving the financial services industry;
 - ❑ A court has accepted a finding of guilt of a misdemeanor involving the financial services industry;

Loan Application Process

- ❑ The applicant has had a similar license denied, revoked or suspended in any state;
- ❑ The applicant files a false or misleading application;
- ❑ The applicant has violated the IRMPA or Rule;
- ❑ The applicant has violated any state or federal law pertaining to mortgage brokering or lending, or loan origination activities;
- ❑ Applicant has not provided a complete application package.

Loan Application Process

■ The Application Process Begins

- Application date-stamped received by receptionist and check processed
- Data input pertaining to the applicant is entered into the database and file folder set up
- Background check run on all parties
 - Information provided comes from state regulatory agencies, federal regulatory agencies such as the NASD and SEC, HUD, DOJ and more
 - Expect to provide fingerprint cards allowing nationwide criminal background checks with the uniform centralized application process

Loan Application Process

■ Examiner Review

- ❑ Have appropriate fees been paid?
- ❑ Application complete? Were background questions answered truthfully and completely? Do responses match background checks?
- ❑ Were attachments provided as needed and complete? Do they answer the questions and provide the information needed to make a decision?
- ❑ Is information provided or missing material to the application decision? Is additional information or further investigation needed?
- ❑ Is bond complete, original and appropriately signed by all parties? Does the name on the bond match the name of the applicant exactly?

Loan Application Process

■ License Status

- ❑ Approved/license issued: Application package complete and employment information with mortgage broker/lender licensee provided/verified
- ❑ Unassigned: Application package approved but employment information with mortgage broker/lender licensee not yet provided/verified
- ❑ Pended: Application package is incomplete or otherwise deficient. Written notification provided to applicant via email, fax or USPS depending on information provided or deficiency reason
- ❑ Denied: Information provided or subsequently received indicates issuance of license is not warranted. Application elevated to Supervising Examiner and Bureau Chief for further review and recommendation prior to assignment to Attorney General's office for denial order. Administrative Order of Denial issued.

Loan Application Process

■ General Application Process Information

- Applications are reviewed in the order received
 - Mortgage firm applications average 50-70 per month
 - Consumer Credit and Collection Agency applications average 20+ per month
 - Escrow company licenses are now required
 - Estimate between 5,000-10,000 loan originator applications will be received
- Volumes do not allow review time frames to be promised
 - Consumer Finance Bureau has 3 examiners in the licensing section
 - Two office specialists will be hired by mid-November
 - Current review time approximately 30 days -- statute allows up to 60 days
 - Status calls will not expedite the process—complete packages will
- Licensing is more than licensing....

Loan Application Process

■ Where is My License?

- Approved Loan Originator licenses will be issued in the loan originator's name AND will reflect the licensed "employing" mortgage broker/lender
- Approved licensees will be posted to the website in live time in a new section "Loan Originator Licensees" accessible from the home page
 - Loan originator licensee listings will reflect their association to a mortgage broker/lender licensee
 - Mortgage broker/lender licensee listings will reflect associated loan originator licensees
- Hard-copy licenses will be mailed to the employing company-designed compliance person
 - Employing companies must provide a copy of the license to the licensed physical location that originator will primarily work from for display in a conspicuous location

Loan Application Amendment Process

■ Have A Change To Your Original Application?

- Changes at any time during the licensure process, or after a license is issued, are required in order to keep the information current
 - Includes address, phone, email, employer, answers to background questions, etc
- Changes to a filed loan originator application are to be completed by filing an updated application form LO1
 - Mark “Amendment” box
 - Complete only the amended information sections and the loan originator’s name
 - Circle those sections to be amended
 - No fee charged for changes

Avoid Common Application Deficiencies

- Read instructions
- Complete the entire application, legibly
- Answer background questions thoroughly and honestly
 - If you answer “Yes” to any question, provide complete details of all events and supporting documentation by attachment
 - Full disclosure may not make the event material to the application decision, but failure to disclose an event will ALWAYS make it material
- Do not leave any space blank
- Make sure bond is completed, signed by surety company and applicant (originator), the name of the originator matches the originator applicant’s name on the application, and the ORIGINAL is submitted with all original attachments
- Submit the correct payment amount
 - Sign check and be sure funds are good

SURETY BOND FOR MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATOR

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that, pursuant to the requirements of Idaho Code § 26-3110(2), I, _____, as Principal, and _____, a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of the state of _____, and authorized to do business in the state of Idaho, as Surety, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Idaho in the penal sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), for the payment of which we hereby bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, assigns, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

In the event that the Principal or any employee or agent of the Principal has violated any provision of the Idaho Residential Mortgage Practices Act, Idaho Code § 26-3101, et seq., or of any rule or order promulgated or issued thereunder, or federal law or regulation pertaining to loan origination, mortgage lending or mortgage brokering activities as set forth in Idaho Code § 26-3102, and has damaged any person by such violation, then the bond shall be forfeited and paid by the Surety to the State of Idaho for the benefit of any person so damaged.

This bond shall be a continuing obligation of the Surety. The Surety's liability under this bond for any claim that it made thereunder, either individually or in the aggregate, shall in no event exceed the penal amount of the bond issued.

PROVIDED, FURTHER, that the Surety may cancel this bond as an entirety by giving thirty (30) days' written notice by registered mail to the Idaho Department of Finance at Boise, Idaho and to the Principal hereunder. In case of such cancellation by the Surety, no further obligation shall be incurred under this bond after the expiration of said thirty (30) days, but the liability of the Principal and Surety shall apply as above set out as to any violations which may have occurred prior to the effective date of such cancellation.

(NAME OF PRINCIPAL/LOAN ORIGINATOR - Please print)

PROCEDURES – CD IN LIEU OF BOND
(Residential Mortgage Practices Act)

1. Licensee must obtain a CD (certificate of deposit) in the amount required under Idaho Code § 26-3110, in licensee's name, FBO (for the benefit of) the Director of the Idaho Department of Finance.
2. The issuing bank or credit union must be instructed as follows:
 - a. The taxpayer identification number (TIN) used for the CD shall be the licensee's TIN.
 - b. Interest on the CD shall be paid to the licensee.
 - c. The CD shall be automatically renewed for like terms, unless the Director instructs the bank or credit union to the contrary.
 - d. The Director shall have the sole right and ability to cash or redeem the CD, to designate the party to whom the CD proceeds should be paid, or to release the CD to the licensee.
 - e. The issuing bank or credit union shall take all steps necessary to ensure that the CD is not cashed or redeemed by a person other than the Director, without the Director's consent.
3. In the event that the CD must be cashed or redeemed by the Director before its maturity and applied to the licensee's obligations or liability under the Residential Mortgage Practices Act, the licensee understands that the bank or credit union issuing the CD may assess its customary early withdrawal penalty.
4. The licensee shall at all times maintain the CD in accordance with the requirements of Idaho Code § 26-3110.
5. The licensee understands that the Director may hold and control the CD for (i) up to three years following the date when the licensee discontinues operations, or (ii) up to three years following the licensee's replacement of the CD with a satisfactory surety bond.

Changes of Employment

- “Employers” must notify the Department of hirings and terminations within 30 days of occurrence
 - Terminations require return of original license
 - Notification forms will be available in the mortgage forms section on the website
- Upon notification of employment termination, a loan originator’s license will be placed into an “Unassigned” status and inactivated until verification and notification of new employment is received
- Upon notification and verification of “employment”, a new loan originator license will be issued in the name of the loan originator and reflecting the association with the verified “employer”

 - Includes refusing to pay appraiser after contracted services performed, regardless of results or reason
- Cannot make false promises, misrepresentations, or circumvent or conceal, any material information regarding a loan;
- Cannot lock a loan, or represent a loan is locked, without delivering a written confirmation to the borrower.

“Housekeeping”

■ QPICs and Broker/Lender Licensees

Note:

- “Employing” mortgage brokers and lenders must:
 - Notify the director of “employment” of a licensed loan originator, within 30 days of employment or contractual arrangement;
 - Notify the director of “termination” of a licensed loan originator within 30 days of termination of employment or contractual arrangement;
 - Maintain any and all “employment” records of loan originators for 3 years.

“Housekeeping”

- Mortgage brokers/lenders risk suspension or revocation of licensure if they:
 - ❑ “Employ” a non-licensed loan originator who conducts loan origination activities prior to licensure
 - ❑ Fail to notify the director of “employment” or “termination” of a licensed loan originator within 30 days of event;
 - ❑ Fail to diligently supervise or control the mortgage related activities of the “employed” loan originator.

State of Idaho, Department of Finance

Mission Statement

To aggressively promote access to vigorous, healthy and comprehensive financial services for Idaho citizens. This is accomplished through prudent and efficient oversight of financial institutions, investment opportunities, and credit transactions. Through administration of laws enacted by the Idaho Legislature, legitimate financial transactions are encouraged, while fraud, unsafe practices, and unlawful conduct are detected and appropriate enforcement action is taken.

Topics for Discussion

Department of Finance examination history and processes

Loan Originator Compliance Requirements

History of the Department's Examination Process

- Between 1996 and 2000, the Department of Finance conducted approximately 10 examinations.
- Examinations were “for-cause”—based upon observation; due to complaints; or resulting from information from related sources.
- The process lasted several days and regularly resulted in administrative action.

An Evolving Process

- At the end of 2000, the examination module evolved into a routine process.
- Exams became routine based upon regions of operations.
- Exams became limited scope, meaning they were generally focused on compliance review.

Examination Focus

■ Full Scope Examination—

- ❑ Assessment of business management through background information and from information gathered through interviews and investigative testimony.
- ❑ An in-depth analysis of accounting measures.
- ❑ Re-underwriting of specific loan files.

■ Limited Scope Examinations—

- ❑ General business management.
- ❑ An analysis of advertising.
- ❑ A review of the accounting and record-keeping measures of the licensee.
- ❑ A compliance review of a percentage of loans.

Additional Focus to Account for Loan Originator Activities

- Beginning in 2006, examination procedures will account for individual loan originator activity.
- Loan review will encompass all licensed and active originators.
- Examination findings will include individual loan originators when necessary.
- Loan originator compliance will be ranked in a manner similar to mortgage brokers/lenders.

Areas Reviewed in Examinations

- Licensure in compliance with the Idaho Residential Mortgage Practices Act (Act).
- Advertising and marketing in compliance with the Act and Regulation Z of Truth-In-Lending.
- Record-keeping in compliance with the Act.

Areas Reviewed in Examinations

■ Loan Originations—

- ❑ Compliance with requirements to provide Idaho specific forms.
- ❑ Compliance with RESPA and Regulation X requirements to provide disclosures.
- ❑ Compliance with Regulation Z requirements to provide disclosures.
- ❑ Compliance with consumer protection provisions of federal and state law.

Areas Reviewed in Examinations

■ Loan Originations—

- ❑ Representations made to borrowers and other parties during a transaction.
- ❑ Practices in obtaining third-party services or in obtaining residential mortgage loan business.
- ❑ Unlicensed origination activities.
- ❑ Receipt or charges of fees that have not been disclosed or that are not reasonable and customary.

General Compliance for Loan Originators

- Licensing.
- Record-keeping.
- Continuing education.
